Monday, February 23, 2015

7:30–8:00 am Registration & Continental Breakfast

8:00–9:00 am Welcome & Keynote Speaker

Principal Baruti Kafele

9:00–10:30 am Transformative Teacher Leadership: Local & Global Perspectives

Series A—Keynote & Special Session Industry Summit: Realizing the full potential of teacher leadership is critical to ensuring that every student is on the path to college, work, and/or military service. Local and global leaders will share strategies to build a community that invests in students and celebrates teacher leadership. Participants will exchange ideas and best practices on how to train teachers to lead change in schools and classrooms.

Session 1A: Teacher Leadership: Local & Global Perspectives

Speaker: Dr. Robert Jackson, President—New Teacher Center (NTC)

Speaker: Dr. Jeff Duncan-Andrade, Author, Educator

Speaker: Dr. Jose Vilson, Author, Speaker

Session 1B: Teacher Leadership and Global Perspectives: Local & Global Perspectives

Speaker: Dr. Robert Jackson, President—New Teacher Center (NTC)

Speaker: Dr. Jeff Duncan-Andrade, Author, Educator

Speaker: Dr. Jose Vilson, Author, Speaker

10:30–11:00 am Keynote Break

11:00 am–12:30 pm Pre-Conference Sessions

Series A: Teacher Leadership: Local & Global Perspectives

Participants will explore how teacher leadership can impact how students are supported in their learning environments. They will learn about strategies to build a culture that empowers teachers to lead change at the local level. Participants will also explore how teacher leadership can impact students’ academic and social-emotional outcomes. They will have the opportunity to connect with peers and local leaders to discuss how teacher leadership can be leveraged to create a positive learning environment for all students.

Session 2A: Teacher Leadership: Local & Global Perspectives

Speaker: Dr. Robert Jackson, President—New Teacher Center (NTC)

Speaker: Dr. Jeff Duncan-Andrade, Author, Educator

Speaker: Dr. Jose Vilson, Author, Speaker

Session 4A: Teacher Leadership: Local & Global Perspectives

Speaker: Dr. Robert Jackson, President—New Teacher Center (NTC)

Speaker: Dr. Jeff Duncan-Andrade, Author, Educator

Speaker: Dr. Jose Vilson, Author, Speaker

12:30–1:15 pm Lunch & Keynote Speaker

Dr. Jeff Duncan-Andrade

1:15–2:45 pm Pre-Conference Sessions

Series B: Social & Emotional Learning: Local & Global Perspectives

Participants will explore how teacher leadership can impact how students are supported in their learning environments. They will learn about strategies to build a culture that empowers teachers to lead change at the local level. Participants will also explore how teacher leadership can impact students’ academic and social-emotional outcomes. They will have the opportunity to connect with peers and local leaders to discuss how teacher leadership can be leveraged to create a positive learning environment for all students.

Session 2B: Social & Emotional Learning: Local & Global Perspectives

Speaker: Dr. Robert Jackson, President—New Teacher Center (NTC)

Speaker: Dr. Jeff Duncan-Andrade, Author, Educator

Speaker: Dr. Jose Vilson, Author, Speaker

Session 4B: Social & Emotional Learning: Local & Global Perspectives

Speaker: Dr. Robert Jackson, President—New Teacher Center (NTC)

Speaker: Dr. Jeff Duncan-Andrade, Author, Educator

Speaker: Dr. Jose Vilson, Author, Speaker

2:45–3:30 pm Keynote Break

3:30–5:00 pm Pre-Conference Sessions

Series C: Professional Development: Local & Global Perspectives

Participants will explore how teacher leadership can impact how students are supported in their learning environments. They will learn about strategies to build a culture that empowers teachers to lead change at the local level. Participants will also explore how teacher leadership can impact students’ academic and social-emotional outcomes. They will have the opportunity to connect with peers and local leaders to discuss how teacher leadership can be leveraged to create a positive learning environment for all students.

Session 2C: Professional Development: Local & Global Perspectives

Speaker: Dr. Robert Jackson, President—New Teacher Center (NTC)

Speaker: Dr. Jeff Duncan-Andrade, Author, Educator

Speaker: Dr. Jose Vilson, Author, Speaker

Session 4C: Professional Development: Local & Global Perspectives

Speaker: Dr. Robert Jackson, President—New Teacher Center (NTC)

Speaker: Dr. Jeff Duncan-Andrade, Author, Educator

Speaker: Dr. Jose Vilson, Author, Speaker

5:00–6:00 pm Keynote Break

6:00–8:00 pm Welcome Reception at the New Teacher Center Benefit Gala

Registration Information

Payment: Payment must be received by January 13, 2015. Payment is non-refundable after the conclusion of the event.

Cancellation Policy: No refunds will be provided for cancellations after January 13, 2015. Any cancellations submitted after January 13, 2015 will be processed after the conclusion of the event.

4:00–6:00 pm Reception & Networking

Visit the New Teacher Center Benefit Gala

Event Themes

Mentoring & Coaching

With an emphasis on CSAs across the country, the event will highlight successful mentoring programs and student centered standards.

Innovation in the Field

Learning about new and innovative programs across the United States. This year’s event will feature workshops that explore new approaches to teaching and learning.

LMU/NTC Teacher Leadership for Social & Emotional Learning

This session will provide professional development opportunities for teachers and administrators to learn about strategies to build a culture that empowers teachers to lead change at the local level.

Professional Development

This session will provide professional development opportunities for teachers and administrators to learn about strategies to build a culture that empowers teachers to lead change at the local level.
Sessions at a Glance

Tuesday, February 24, 2015

8:00–9:00 am General Session & Keynote Speaker • Kate Gerson

9:30 am–11:30 am Sessions A

11:45 am–1:45 pm Sessions B

1:45–3:45 pm Lunch & Keynote Speaker

3:45–5:30 pm Sessions C

Tuesday, February 24, 2015

From Rhetoric to Reality

Kate Gerson is a Senior Fellow for Educator Engagement and the Common Core in New York State. As a former high school English teacher and school district consultant, she is well versed in the complex issues facing teachers and school leaders. Gerson served previously as the Executive Director of Academic Programs for New Leaders, where she led integrated program design and implementation to principal preparation, induction, and leadership development. Her latest book, From Rhetoric to Reality: Lessons from Preparing Teachers for High-Need Schools, examines the impact of new teacher induction programs on student outcomes at low-performing urban schools.

Gerson will join us to discuss her book and highlight key takeaways for teachers and leaders.

Schedule at a Glance

Monday, February 23, 2015

8:30–9:30 am Registration & Continental Breakfast

9:30 am–11:30 am Sessions A

11:45 am–1:45 pm Sessions B

1:45–3:45 pm Lunch & Keynote Speaker • Jeff Duncan-Andrade

3:45–5:30 pm Sessions C

Tuesday, February 24, 2015

1:30–4:00 pm Continental Breakfast

7:00 pm–1:30 pm Keynote Speakers: Linda S. Whitehead, Lee L. Jacks, Susan Inman, Lybroan James, & Jerome Seymour

Tuesday, February 24, 2015

Following the Classroom Transformation: Keynote for New Teachers & Leaders

Linda S. Whitehead, New Teacher Center

Linda Whitehead is the Executive Director of New Teacher Center, a national nonprofit that supports new teachers and their leaders in building high-quality, equitable, and sustainable schools. Whitehead has over 20 years of experience working with new teachers and leaders, and is known for her leadership and innovation in the field of teacher induction. She is a frequent keynote speaker at professional development events across the country and is the author of The New Teacher Center Book: A Practical Guide to Improving New Teacher Induction Programs.

Whitehead will share insights from the New Teacher Center’s work with schools and districts around the country, including their latest research on the impact of effective new teacher induction programs. She will also highlight freely available resources and tools for teachers and leaders who are interested in improving their new teacher induction programs.

57th National Symposium on Teacher Induction

Hyatt Regency San Francisco Airport

February 22–24, 2015

Register online at www.newteachercenter.org • Register on or before January 9, 2015 and save

We invite you! Teachers, mentors, coaches, principals, and district leaders are invited to join us at Symposium 2015 to learn more about designing and implementing high-quality induction programs and Accelerating Excellence in our schools.